Psalm 45

Introduction

Exposition

Prologue (45:1)

45: To the Chief Musician.
Set to Contemplation of the Sons of Korah.
A Song of Love.

1 My heart is overflowing with a good theme;
I recite my composition concerning the King;
My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

This portion serves as a introduction to the Psalm. V 1. This verse shows the process of writing this Psalm - an instrument in the hand of the Holy Spirit who is the ultimate author of this Psalm as well as the whole of the Scripture. This process is referred as inspiration.

Stature of the King (45:2-5)

- 45: 2 You are fairer than the sons of men;
Grace is poured upon Your lips;
Therefore God has blessed You forever.
- 3 Gird Your sword upon Your thigh, O Mighty One,
With Your glory and Your majesty.
- 4 And in Your majesty ride prosperously because of truth, humility, and righteousness.
And Your right hand shall teach You awesome things.
- 5 Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies;
The peoples fall under You.

This passage talks of the great stature of the Messiah the promised ruler of Israel. Here we see all the perfections of greatness are attributed to Christ - the promised Messiah.

V 2. It speaks of the Lord's perfection is greater than all the other human beings ever on this earth. This makes Him to be worshipped. God has blessed you for ever shows the special blessing of Messiah.

V 3. Sword speaks of one characteristic of the king who defends his nation from all the enemies. Here, the messiah is addressed as the Mighty One pointing to his divinity.

V 4. Three attributes of the Messiah is shown here: truth, humility, and righteousness. All the dealing of the Messiah, though he is a mighty ruler, is based on his core character.

V 5. While there are enemies of the King, they will not prevail.

Kingly State (45:6-9)

- 45: 6 Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;
A scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom.
- 7 You love righteousness and hate wickedness;
Therefore God, Your God, has anointed You
With the oil of gladness more than Your companions.
- 8 All Your garments are scented with myrrh and aloes and cassia,
Out of the ivory palaces, by which they have made You glad.
- 9 Kings' daughters are among Your honorable women;
At Your right hand stands the queen in gold from Ophir.

The Bride's allegiance (45:10-12)

- 45: 10 Listen, O daughter,
Consider and incline your ear;
Forget your own people also, and your father's house;
- 11 So the King will greatly desire your beauty;
Because He is your Lord, worship Him.
- 12 And the daughter of Tyre will come with a gift;
The rich among the people will seek your favor.

Bridal Train (45:13-15)

- 45: 13 The royal daughter is all glorious within the palace;
Her clothing is woven with gold.
- 14 She shall be brought to the King in robes of many colors;
The virgins, her companions who follow her, shall be brought to You.
- 15 With gladness and rejoicing they shall be brought;
They shall enter the King's palace.
